next season, but insisted he was comfortable with the new structures in the province.

'No, I'm fine. I'm put out by the fact that we have a vital game against Edinburgh on Friday night and I'm talking about something that is going to happen in July,' said Foley.

'Look, he has a different opinion, comes from a different way of doing it. He comes from a High Performance Unit within South Africa. He has played, worked at the highest level, so other than that I'd say you have more information on those sheets of paper in front of you than I do.'

● CONNACHT want to crown this season by lifting the first silverware in their 131-year history. That's the goal Pat Lam and his men have set for themselves after sitting down and setting new targets after qualifying for the Champions Cup off their own steam for the time when they defeated Munster ten days ago. They head into the final stretch without prop Denis Buckley and centre Bundee Aki. Buckley might not feature again this season after suffering a fracture in his ankle in

O'Brien targets Kingspan clash for comeback

LEINSTER backs coach Girvan Dempsey has revealed that Seán O'Brien is nearing a return to action, and may even be fit for Saturday's crucial Pro12 clash with Ulster. 'Seán O'Brien is very close.
