the pair to focus on. Mega Fortune landed the silver medal at Prestbury Park and has improved since cheekpieces were fitted, but the Irish novices seem much of a muchness this year and it would come as no surprise to see BAPAUME (third) turn the tables on him in a race his stable have won in each of the last three seasons. Merl Devine, who was behind the aforementioned pair in the Juvenile Spring Hurdle at Leopardstown, could also take a hand, while Triumph fifth Landoff-peandgiory cannot be discounted either.

account for Bonbon Au Miel, who has gone well in two starts for Willie Mullins and should be suited by this better ground. Scoor Meear was an eye-catcher for Thomas Mullins in the Coral Cup when a fast-finishing fifth and he needs a market check, while Gordon Elliott is typically well represented with Automated, Sire Du Berlais and Carrig Cathal topping the list of his hopefuls.
